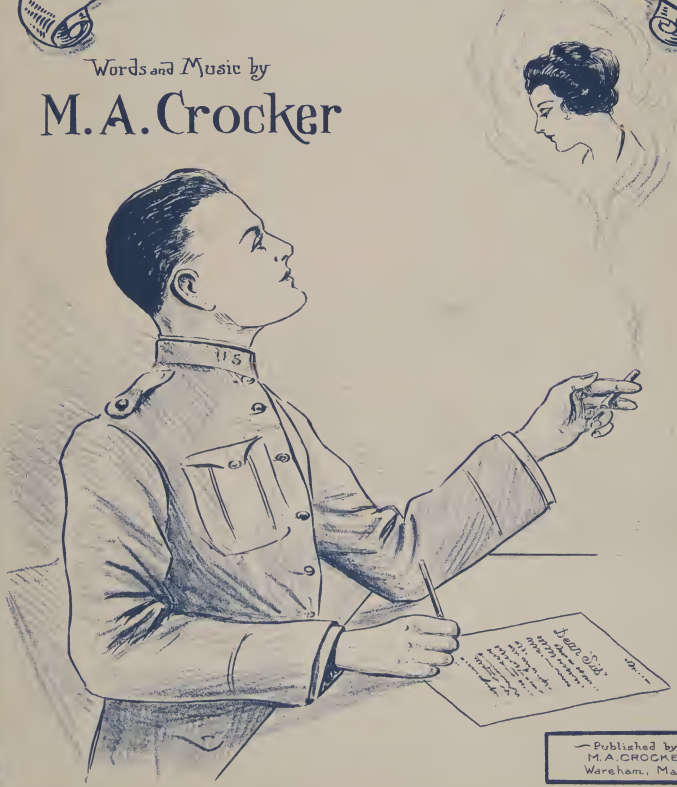
BROTHER OF MINE

SONG

Words and Music by

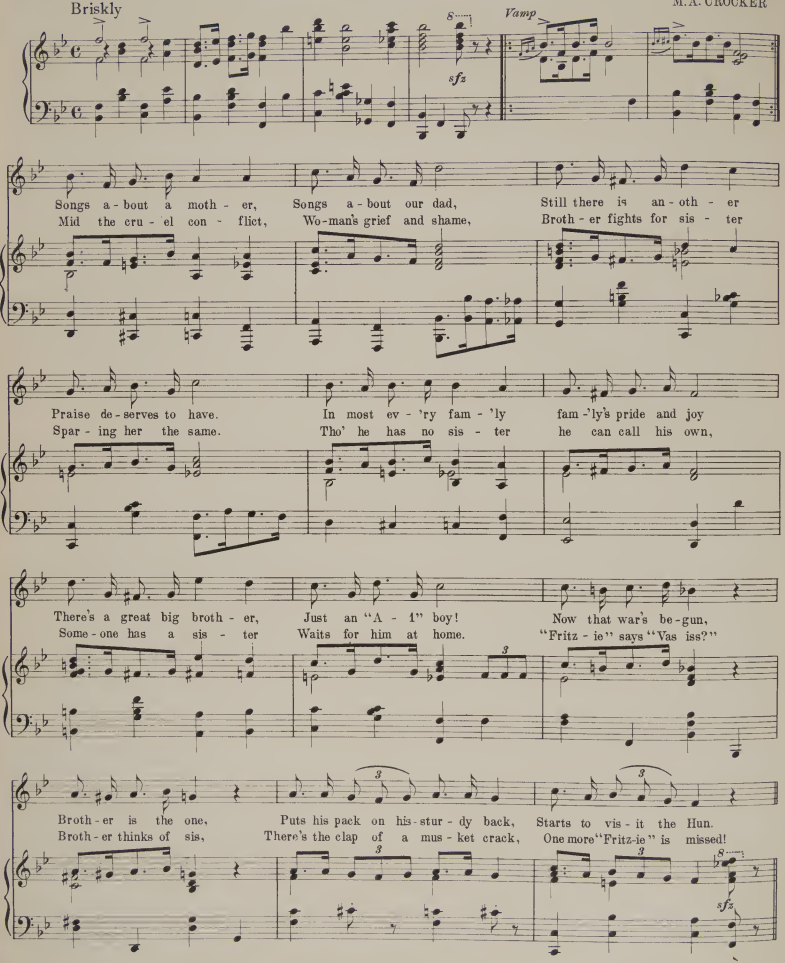
M. A. Crocker



Published by
M. A. CROCKER,
Wareham, Mass.

BROTHER OF MINE

Words and Music by
M. A. CROCKER



Briskly
Vamp
sfz
Songs a - bout a moth - er, Songs a - bout our dad, Still there is an - oth - er
Mid the cru - el con - flict, Wo-man's grief and shame, Broth - er fights for sis - ter
Praise de - serves to have. In most ev - 'ry fam - 'ly fam -'ly's pride and joy Spar - ing her the same. Tho' he has no sis - ter he can call his own,
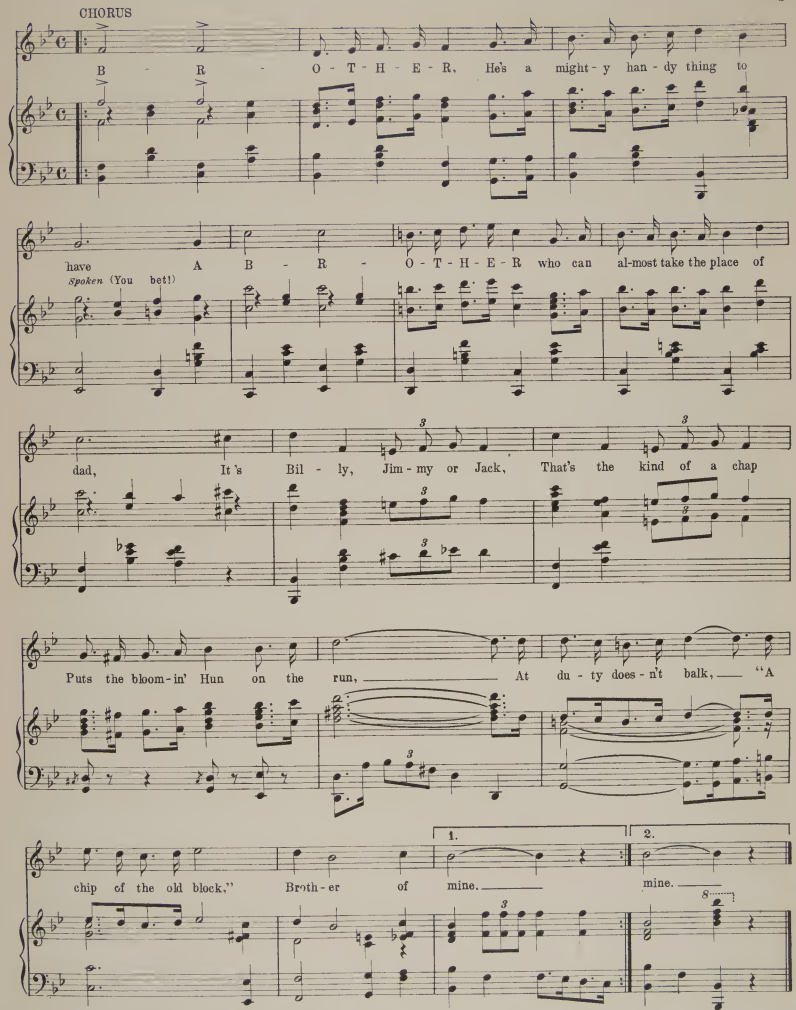
There's a great big broth - er, Just an "A - 1" boy! Now that war's be-gun,
Some - one has a sis - ter Waits for him at home. "Fritz - ie" says "Vas iss?"
Broth - er is the one, Puts his pack on his - stur - dy back, Starts to vis - it the Hun.
Broth - er thinks of sis, There's the clap of a mus - ket crack, One more "Fritz-ie" is missed!
sfz

Copyright 1918 by M. A. Crocker



CHORUS
B - R - O - T - H - E - R, He's a might - y han - dy thing to have A B - R - O - T - H - E - R who can al-most take the place of Spoken (You bet!)
dad, It 's Bil - ly, Jim - my or Jack, That's the kind of a chap Puts the bloom-in' Hun on the run, At du - ty does - n't balk, "A chip of the old block," Broth - er of mine. mine.
1.
2.